The Prince Charles Cinema Reviews & Events

MARGIN CALL

Director: J.C. Chandor 107 mins
Zachary Quinto, Stanley Tucci and Kevin Spacey

Investment-firm analyst Peter Sullivan (Zachary Quinto) uncovers sensitive information that could easily plunge the entire business into peril, inadvertently destroying the lives and careers of his colleagues in this tense thriller set during the onset of the 2008 financial crisis. Over the course of the next 24 hours, Sullivan realizes that the decisions he makes will not only affect the employees of the firm, but the lives of everyday Americans from coast to coast as well.

SHAME

Director: Steve McQueen 101 mins
Michael Fassbender, Carey Mulligan and James Badge

Brandon is a 30-something man living in New York who is unable to manage his sex life. After his wayward younger sister moves into his apartment, Brandon's world spirals out of control. From director Steve McQueen (Hunger), Shame is a compelling and timely examination of the nature of need, how we live our lives and the experiences that shape us.

WE NEED TO TALK ABOUT KEVIN

Director: Lynne Ramsay 112 mins
Starring: Tilda Swinton, John C. Reilly and Ezra Miller

A tormented mother grapples with feelings of accountability and intense grief after her troubled 15-year-old son commits an act of violence that shakes their community to its very core. Eva had a promising career when an unplanned pregnancy threw her life off-balance. From the moment Kevin was born, there was a palpable tension between mother and son. Years later, as a teenager, Kevin snaps and the community recoils from Kevin and his family....
